Overview

Allison is the resident and founding partner of the firm's Lih u'e, Kaua'i office.

Over the course of her 20-year legal career, Allison has successfully resolved numerous matters, primarily in the areas of commercial and real estate litigation, foreclosure, and probate and trust litigation.

Born and raised on the Island of Kaua'i, in 2016 Allison opened and now heads the firm's office in Lih u'e. She is a co-chair of the firm's Attorney Training and Development Committee and the former (2021) president of the Kauai Bar Association. She also served as a member of the Recruiting Committee for over a decade.

Prior to joining Cades Schutte, Allison graduated as valedictorian in 2001 from the William S. Richardson School of Law, University of Hawai'i. Allison served as a law clerk to the Honorable Alan C. Kay, Senior United States District Judge for the District of Hawai'i.

In 2021, Allison was named one of Pacific Business News' Women Who Mean Business honorees, an award which celebrates the voices, accomplishments, and impact of some of the most successful businesswomen in Hawai'i.
