Overview

Reyn is an associate in the Finance, Real Estate, and Corporate Department. He is also a member of the firm's Recruiting and Summer Associate Program Committees.

Reyn practices in the areas of public utilities, energy, water resources, real estate, banking and finance, and construction. He was selected as a 2025 Fellow in the Hawai'i State Bar Association's 17th Annual Leadership Institute, was recognized in Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch® in America 2026 edition and has been recognized as a Super Lawyers® Rising Star since 2023.

Reyn represents public utility companies and common carriers providing electric, sewer, water, and transportation services regulated by the Hawai'i Public Utilities Commission in certification, rate case, asset sale and transfer, regulatory, formal complaint, and other proceedings. He also represents clients ranging from large institutions to individuals in real estate transactions, title and entitlement due diligence, financing, and construction documentation.

Born in Wailuku and raised in Honolulu, Reyn is a graduate of 'Iolani School. He received his Bachelor of Arts in History, cum laude, from Claremont McKenna College and earned his law degree from the University of Hawai'i, William S. Richardson School of Law.

As a law student, Reyn was a Senior Editor for the Asian Pacific Law and Policy Journal, competed as a member of the Thomas Tang Moot Court team, and earned the CALI Excellence for the Future Award for the highest grades in Lawyering Fundamentals I and II.
